CULTIVATING COVINGTON'S CREATIVE SIDE

The Covington Screen Test Film Project Many Films. One Story.

Covington and Greater Cincinnati are full of talented filmmakers who can tell a great story. The Covington Screen Test Film Project was created to bring some of this great local talent together to make a variety of films that tell one story. A unique tale that could only happen here.

Sunday, October 25th Carnegie Visual & Performing Arts Center 1028 Scott Street, Covington

Big Fat Brain and Barking Fish will take all submissions of films and showcase its best. The event will take place in the historical Carnegie's Theater and original films will be played the entire day. Learn about the local film industry, be amazed and intrigued by its talent and perhaps become inspired to have a stab at it.

Submit Your Film

If you have a story to tell, submit your film. If you'd like to extend the storyline already started by Film Zero, watch it first at www.screentestfilm.com and then submit your version. Then sit back and watch how it threads with the other submissions on October 25th.
