

COVINGTON

1 Artisans Enterprise Center (AEC), 25 West Seventh Street
 Natalie Bowers, 859 292 2322
 The Artisans Enterprise Center is Covington's Urban Arts Center, housing gallery, conference and educational facilities. The 2009 schedule of exhibitions will feature shows curated by the AEC's Curatorial Jury Committee. Feature: City Lights: Abstraction & Absence, works by Holland Davison, painter and Joe Hedges, Photographer, show runs until April 9.

2 Bean Haus, 640 Main Street
 Tim Eversole, 859 431 2326
 info@beanhaus.com
 Bean Haus is a coffee and tea shop that features diverse artists, music, and family activities. Feature: Alaina Repic's show, "Second Sight," displays photography addressing a variety of topics from our area and abroad.

3 Cock & Bull English Pub, 601 Main Street 859 581 4253
 Scott Roseburrough, 601main@insightbb.com
 Cock & Bull is Covington's authentic English Pub. Featuring award winning Fish & Chips & 37 Craft Beers on Tap. Join us for "Tap Time" Monday-Friday 3-7pm for 1/2 Price Appetizers & $4.50 20oz Pints. Feature: Gallery Hop Specials: $3 Wine & Cocktails

4 Community Action Gallery, 717 Madison Avenue
 Arlene Gibeau Lilac1221@aol.com 859 491 2584
 The Community Action Gallery is a partner with all of creation and speaks to the higher purpose of humankind. Feature: Tiger Lilly Press, a Fine Art Community Printmaking Studio open to the public since 1978. Its mission is to maintain a facility in which printmakers can reach their full potential. Printmakers in this exhibition are all recognized artists with work in national and international collections.

5 Covington Clay, 16 W. Pike Street 859 491 3900
 Rick Hoffman www.covingtonclay.com
 Covington Clay is educational studio, workshop and retail space owned and run by Artist Rick Hoffman. Feature: First Amendment Friday is back from 6-9pm - we need more tiles for the mural. Make two tiles, one for us and one for you. It's free. Also, treasure-hunt for the $1 pot in the gallery.

6 Gallery 31, 31 W. Pike St.
 Barbara Ruh, 859 393 8358
 passionateartscenter@gmail.com / www.passionateartscenterPAC.blogspot.com
 Gallery 31 exhibits fine art from established regional artists. Passionate Arts Center is a fine arts incubator with studio rental spaces, art classes, Gallery 31, and Joe Ruh Photography. Feature: "Simply Spring" through Apr 16. Designer Teresa Eklund will be showing her piece, "Strength and Dignity". Enjoy refreshments and mingling in our cozy gallery filled with Calligraphy, Paintings, Photography, Pottery, Sculpture, Silks, Textiles, Mixed Media, Stained glass, Jewelry, Hats, Vintage items, Marquetry, Cloisonne and more, from over thirty regional artists.

7 Julie's Inspiration, 608 Main Street
 Julie Boone 859 291 8200
 juliesinspiration@fuse.net
 An eclectic consignment shop with current and vintage clothing and apparel for Men & Women, jewelry, collectibles, furniture and artwork, including local artists. Feature: Mel Steinhauer, photographer, opens "Scenes From Far And Near", that includes natural landscapes and beautiful scenes from around the world and our neighborhood.

8 Keystone Grill, 313 Greenup Street, 859 261 6777
 Emily Hoyt, emily@keystonebar.com
 Keystone Grill is a local restaurant and bar that perpetually supports the arts by hosting local artists to adorn its walls. Feature: Mike Maydak displays new acrylic paintings inspired by the architecture surroundings of the local area.

9 Mahogany's Bar & Grill, 3715 Winston Avenue, Latonia
 Bob Davis, 859 261 1029
 maseratibd@aol.com
 Mahogany's is a Bar and Grill restaurant and exhibits local art. www.mahoganyslive.com
 Feature: Gallery Hop 1/2 off art and drink special tonight.

10 Nordheim Gallery, Holmes High School, 2500 Madison Ave.
 859 292 3960
 Trisha Brundage, Trisha.brundage@covington.kyschools.us
 The Nordheim Gallery is located on the beautiful and well maintained campus of historic Holmes High School. It is operated by Covington Independent Public Schools. The gallery presents new exhibits of work each month by visiting artists - professional, hobbyist, and/or emerging. It is open for special events, by appointment, and from 6 to 9 p.m. Feature: Through March 26 the Nordheim Gallery features a series of photographs titled, "Botswana - Top to Bottom" taken by Jane Strauss. A world traveler with a heart for adventure and an eye for whimsy Ms. Strauss chronicled her safari experience with a new camera and a zoom lens. The opening reception is free and open to the public, 6-9pm.

11 The Flying Cat, 713 Main Street, 859 291 2287
 Julia Martin, theflyingcat.net@gmail.com,
 The Flying Cat is a creative boutique and collective. We are a store front filled with local crafts, arts and eclectic and cute items for home, body and kids. We host 1st Friday events, and are open Saturdays 12-5pm. Feature: The Owl that Stole My Heart and Other Creatures I've Met, artist Julia C. Martin. Come visit The Flying Cat March 5th 6-10pm to find a fantastical display of life-size sketches by one grown up kid searching for the pieces to the puzzle of life. Free Wine and Treats, Tarot Card Readings Available $20. 6-10pm

12 Sandra Small Gallery, 124 W. Pike Street, 859 291 2345
 Sandra Small, SandraSmallGallery@zoomtown.com
 The Sandra Small Gallery showcases the finest in contemporary painting, drawing, sculpture, printmaking, photography and handmade jewelry. Feature: Quietude, Landscape paintings and photographs set the mood for quiet reflection. Show closes March 26.

13 Swayne on Main, 518 Main Street, 859 261 0076
 Kevin Swayne, rgillen2@gmail.com
 Swayne on Main is a hair and nail studio located in Mainstrasse. Feature: 'Up', featuring new paintings by Rachel Gillen.

FIRST FRIDAY GALLERY HOP

MARCH 5 2010 6-10PM